Trying to find a parking space at night, and sometimes during the day and I have to pay for it, does not make sense if if Love doesn't load why? For me it was greedy we work for you and everyone else in the US that is not okay I understand things in the store and fuel goes up, but the drivers charge for parking, which is not right, and most parking lots, but the holes and garbage in it are not much if you do it will have more paid parking .... I'm just a 1. Truck Driver so I know it doesn't mean anything to you, so fuel and buy something in the store, but I sleep in Love it's free I'm very grateful for the fuel points, but come on you forgot who you're as big as you are if you have this truck driver brought it to you 🙏🙏🙏🙏.... Thank you for your time. First of all, there must be a feature contact us in this store, such as the Love app, which sends a message to both the store and the company. I don't always want to talk to a manager, and I would feel better knowing that the team at the company is tracking the resolution of reported issues. If your messaging system has been built into the app, you can preload it with some topics (maintenance, cleanliness, food, parking, employees, others, etc.) and directly to drivers about the progress of the reported issue. It goes a long way when people feel heard and see results. I encountered stores that have reserve parking but do not appear in the app. I was also in a location that the app says has an improved WiFi experience, but it doesn't. When I asked the store, the manager knew about the problem, but the information in the app was not corrected. I called the main customer service number, but it crashed after waiting too long. For several months the app said that I have one notification, but nothing is indicated once inside the application. I went to each page and even deleted and reinstalled the application, and notification 1 still exists. This is on the iPhone 6S Plus, the latest iOS (currently 12.1) and the latest myPilot app (currently 4.2.0). Update *** since my last update I've tried some other major credit cards. One card worked all the other did not. Mastercard cards are not recognized at all. I tried visa and mastercards. Update *** Well, I have emailed them and they said they don't accept major credit cards yet. I was told it would be available at the end of September. It is now October 1. I thought maybe it was fixed in this last update, but it didn't. Not to mention, it clearly states in the FAQ section of my wallet in your app that major credit cards can be entered. As I said, it is worse to offer an application that promises big, but delivers little. Always under promise and over deliver because it makes me no longer want to use this company. I tried and tries to enter in other payment cards and repeats to me the same thing, problems communicating with the server. It has been going on for a long time, there were 3 yes updates and it still dong it. Either seriously about this app or abandon it and remove it. I'd rather not have an app app anything other than one that is half hearted. Hi Japscatt, The feature of adding personal payment methods has been added to the app. If you're having trouble adding cards to your wallet, contact us so we can help. myPilotFeedback@pilottravelcenters.com Developer Website App Support Privacy Policy KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Pilot Flying J changes its name to Pilot Co., introducing all related brands into a single corporate identity. The new name will serve as an umbrella that captures the entire business portfolio as it continues to expand its retail and energy business, the company said. The update also helps employees who work in a growing network of retail brands and energy companies act as a single team working together, he said. The work our team has put into our 60-year legacy has prepared us for what awaits us as we embark on the next phase of development, said Jimmy Haslam, CEO of Pilot. We are an innovative company that is a leader in fuel supply and distribution in North America. As the industry grows, it's important that we do that as well. We need to continue to grow our business and develop more opportunities that will allow us to effectively serve our team members and guests. Pilot Co. is the next step in the bright future of our company. The company won't rename its Pilot and Flying J travel centers, but the change will bring a new logo that harks back to the first Pilot gas station founded by James A. Haslam, who is currently president, in Gate City, Va., in 1958.*Pilot Flying J is No.12 in the CSP 2019 Top 202 C store chain by number of retail outlets.
